-THE BENJAMIN FRANKLIN AWARDS FINALISTS-

The Benjamin Franklin Awards is an esteemed American book award regarded as the highest national honor in publishing, which includes fifty plus categories judged in excellence in both editorial and design. The award was established by Jan Nathan, founder of IBPA Independent Book Publishers Association (formerly PMA), twenty-one years ago. The first Benjamin Franklin Awards were awarded in 1987 and they are now announced each year at IBPA's Publishing University, just prior to BookExpo America.
